

FOCUS GROUPS

A Focus group might be interest or task/mission based (study group, a prayer group, a theology class, a parenting class, a money-management class, etc.) that is offered for a six- to ten-week period.

Focus groups are especially for those who cannot attend a home group but still would like to be involved in a small group.

If you have ideas for the subjects of focus groups please contact Sonja sos@vineyard-brussels.be

A PLACE TO GROW AND TO EXPERIENCE MORE OF WHAT GOD

Small groups provide the perfect smaller setting to meet with friends, a place of support and encouragement, and a place to know and be known.

We encourage everyone to join a Home Group and we suggest people try two or three different groups before deciding.

Whilst all of our groups have the same broad mix of values and content, each group its own unique flavour and style - so there is something for everyone.

may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith. Rom

A Place to Grow and Serve through

During a typical Home Group evening you might worship together, pray for each other, and have a time of sharing or teaching. You can get involved in blessing the community through outreach and serving activities.

Healthy relationships and deep friendships are fundamental. So food and fun are important in many of our Home Groups.

The Home Groups meet during the week, which day depends on the group.

During the third week of each month we meet all together in church on the Wednesday instead of the normal locations. We are not a bunch of perfect people who have got life all figured out, we still need to grow and ask questions. We need others to help us when we mess things up. A Home Group is a place to learn what it actually looks like to follow Christ; a place to study scripture and then live it out. We all need each others' help through the struggles and good times of our Christian journey.

People who are regularly connecting with a small group of other Christians tend to stay connected to the church long term, serve in ministry, grow spiritually, experience care and
